Awareness

LEARN MORE

We use the web, social media and news media to tell a story often left untold.

In addition to our online efforts, We travel the world visiting porn conventions colleges, churches and community centers raising awareness about the true addictive and destructive nature of pornography.

Prevention

LEARN MORE

We are the largest site online and most recognized voice on the planet on the issue of pornography.

Our site offers tools, resources and blogs to help prevent pornography from becoming a destructive force in one's life. We have created the very best software programs for accountability and filtering online.

Recovery

LEARN MORE

We are committed to help men and women conquer sexual issues like pornography addiction and sex addiction and regain control of their lives.

We do this online through our X3pure workshops, which enable a speedy and effective recovery for men and women dealing with Internet pornography and other sex-related addictions. This is done in the most confidential and professional manner possible.
