

2025 BINGO

Summer Discipleship

There's just something about summer. The days are longer, the sun is brighter and schedules are a little less structured. But we know all too well summer will go all too fast! We've created this Summer Discipleship Moments resource to help turn your everyday summer moments into memorable moments with God.

HOW IT WORKS:

- Blue squares: These are activities for your family to do together. Personalize them to work for your location and schedule. The important thing is your family is together, seeing God in your everyday activities.
- Orange squares: These squares are for your family to choose your own adventure! Use each "free space" to spend the day at the beach, see the animals at the zoo, visit a family friend ... get creative!
- Purple squares: Purple square moments are designed to encourage you, the parent, about your role in the faith formation of your kids. Scan the QR code (or visit intentionalparents.org/intentional-film-series) to enjoy heartfelt and inspiring videos created by Intentional Parents about the privilege and importance of family discipleship.

HOW DO I GET A "BINGO"?

Check off five squares in either a horizontal, diagonal or vertical line. Once you've completed a bingo, take a picture of your bingo board and tag @childdiscipleship on Facebook or Instagram (we won't share your images without your permission). You can also email your picture to us at childdiscipleship@awana.org. We will randomly select one winner 6/28/24, 7/12/24, 7/26/24, and 8/9/24 to receive a prize!
